THIRTY-FOURTH YEAR NO. 45.

CEDARVILLE, OHIO, FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 10, 1911.

PRICE, $1.00 A YEAR

Mayoralty Contest Was Very Close.

Battle of Ballots Result in a Decisive Defeat for Mayor Andrew---Marvelous Change in Marking Ballots.

The old time campaign slogans, "Vote Straight" and "Don't Scratch" were assigned to the political scrap heap Tuesday when the electors of this village turned down the Republican nominees, James H. Andrew, at present serving his first term, and wrote the name of L. G. Bull, in the vacant space on the Independent ticket.

During the primary for municipal nominations last September, Mr. Andrew won over Mr. Bull by a vote of 116 to 113. Recent events turned the voters in another direction and Mr. Bull consented to his name being written upon the ticket. Since the use of the Australian ballot the like was never known in this section of the state. The result disproves the oft repeated claim that the people could not mark a scratched ticket.

The Andrew supporters were confining their efforts to the election of the nominee for mayor and James Bailey for marshal. Voters were asked to take only the municipal ticket upon entering the polls. There were seven ballots for each voter. The tax levies, justice of the peace, constitutional convention and board of education ran from 80 to 100 behind the municipal ticket.

The only other nominee to suffer defeat was F. Puffer, for assessor. D. H. McFarland, winning by a majority of 23, Rev. W. E. Putt and J. E. Hastings were chosen members of school board. The tax levies for corporation and school district were defeated, the former by two to one. The latter lacked ten of winning.

The following is the vote: Constitutional Convention--

Won Prize On Essay.

The Colgate Perfume Co., has awarded a life box of Ribbon Dental Cream, to Lucille Johnson, as first prize on an essay, "The Care of the Teeth." Second prize went to Nellie Boase, third to Carrie Shull.

The following is the prize essay: "If the teeth are well taken care of they will add beauty to the face."

We find them in the mouth, little bony pegs set in sockets in our jaws, and if they are kept clean they shine like little jewels. They are more valuable to us than jewels because if we do not have good teeth we cannot chew our food well. And it may make us sick. Children begin to get their teeth when they are about six months old. They are called milk teeth. There are twenty of these first teeth. When they are about six years old they begin to fall out and a second set comes. There are thirty-two teeth in the second set.

We should be careful to not pick our teeth with pin or needle or crack nuts or chew tobacco or hard candy or anything hot or cold. Twice a day we should wash our teeth well. And twice a year go to the dentist and have our teeth cleaned and any small place filled. I had mine cleaned a few weeks ago and it did not hurt a bit. Sometimes the teeth have to be pulled and they say that hurts pretty bad.

THEATRE NOTES.

On Thursday night, November the ninth, for that night only the dramatization of "The Grain of Dust" will be given at the Fairbanks Theatre, Springfield, Ohio, by James K. Hackett and his company which includes such well known people as B. M. Holland, Frazer Coulter, Vaughn Trevor, Charles Stedman, Frank Burbeck, Fred A. Sullivan, David Jarrett, Jr., Miss Letitia Jewel, Olive Harper, Pauline Neff and Mabel Inslee. The book of this popular novel is an unquestioned masterpiece of modern fiction and is accepted by critics far and near, and its extraordinary, even phenomenal sale, proves this better than any other instance. In theatrical circles interest in the new play centers in the fact that it marks the return of James K. Hackett to actor-managerment, in which he has been so successful. The role of Frederick Norman is to some extent similar to several others that Mr. Hackett has appeared in, including that of Jack Forbisher in the "Walls of Jericho" and also that of John Gladio in "John Gladio's Honor." From present indications the theatre will be packed to the doors to give Mr. Hackett and his company the welcome they deserve.

The attraction at the Fairbanks Friday and Saturday, November 10-11, will be the Jeanie Nuala Opera Company, accompanied by the famous Marini and Bronski Russian Dancers from the Imperial Opera House, Moscow.

Jeanie Nuala is a well known and talented opera singer of European reputation with a lovely soprano voice and charming personality. As a child she was educated in France and Italy. There her voice attracted the attention of the great composer Gounier, and by his advice she studied under Madame Marchesi after three years with her. She made her debut at the Municipal Theatre at Nice, France, as Glia in "Rigoletto." Since then she has acquired a large repertoire, singing with equal facility in several languages--as she is an accomplished linguist. Following her successful winter at the Grand Opera, she was engaged at Cannes and Monte Carlo, her high social position securing for her the patronage of the Princes of Monaco.

She was first heard in this country at the White House in Washington at the celebration of the 18th anniversary of the wedding of President and Mrs. Roosevelt, followed by numerous entertainments and receptions in Washington and New York, giving in Venetian costume selections of the folk songs of Italy accompanied by a quartette of Italian musicians with such success that she was induced to enlarge her company of singers and musicians into an opera company. Miss Nuala's voice is rich and full, with a wide range capable of every degree of modulation and classic delineation. Her interpretation is dramatic, vivid and most artistic.

Billy Sunday Closed Campaign.

The great religious campaign that has been conducted in Springfield by Rev. Billy Sunday and his party, came to a close last Sabbath night, before an enormous audience.

The last day's work resulted in 338 conversions, 697 of this number hit the saw dust trail at the night meeting. The total number of converts for the six weeks was 6,504.

The free will offering for Mr. Sunday amounted to $13,871.13 and a draft for this amount was handed him before he left Monday morning. The amount may yet reach $14,000, owing to additional contributions.

With the collection for Mr. Sunday and the collections at various times for the expenses of the meetings, approximately $25,000 was raised during the meetings. This does not include amounts for song books, copies of sermons, and similar expenditures.

Mr. Sunday will spend a few days at Winona Lake, Ind., before going to Wichita, Kan., on Friday.

Deans Have Lucky Escape.

Mr. Samuel Dean and family experienced a narrow escape from injury last Sabbath while returning from Springfield in their auto. Another machine had stopped for repairs this side of Clifton and in passing the Dean car skidded from the road into a deep ditch. The car struck a telephone pole and broke it off ten feet from the ground and turned on its side in the ditch. The occupants were thrown from the machine but were uninjured.

Maine In Dry Column.

The result of the recent state-wide prohibition election in Maine has been announced by the governor and his council as "dry." For several weeks the temperance forces were thought to have been defeated but a contest in four towns in the state changes the returns in favor of the "drys."

Corn Show In Springfield.

The Ohio State Corn Show will be held in Springfield early in January. The exhibits to be displayed in the Billy Sunday tabernacle, which has been purchased by a committee from the Merchants' Association. This building will also be used for the State G. A. R. encampment in that city next June.

Dr. S. D. Fess Chosen Delegate.

President of Antioch College an Easy Winner--
Is a Progressive and Favors the Initiative and Referendum.

President S. D. Fess of Antioch College was given a majority of 318 votes Tuesday over John B. Stevenson, recognized as a "Stand-Pat" Republican. Horace Talbot, secretary of Wilberforce University, was the third candidate but was only able to poll 307 votes in the county.

The campaign for delegate only began to materialize last week when Mr. Stevenson carried considerable matter in the various newspapers in the county. Mr. Stevenson carried Xenia by 230 votes, the Fourth ward, colored, by 230, while Dr. Fess received only 4 votes, and Mr. Talbot 33, a remarkably low vote among his own race.

Dr. Fess is probably one of the foremost citizens of the state and is known over the country as an educator and orator. He has been admitted to the bar and has been regarded as authority on constitutional law. On all moral measures the Dr. will give not only his vote but will use his effort in that direction. He is regarded as a progressive and will support the Initiative and Referendum but is said to be against the recall of judges.

Elections over the county were quiet and not many contests. Over the state the Democrats seem to have swept the platter, while the Socialists will have nine mayors in various small cities.

O. A. Wilson was re-elected mayor in Fairfield by the Democrats over Angus Gano, Independent.

W. H. Hebble, Republican, was easily winner in Osborn, over G. J. Butts, Independent, and William Freeman, D.

J. W. Halvin was elected mayor without opposition, Xenia.

Thomas Donnelly, Republican, defeated E. L. Clark, Independent, in Yellow Springs. This city votes for increased tax levy.

Oliver Watson, D., was chosen mayor of Bellbrook over B. F. James, R.

Over the state the Democrats captured all the large cities, except Dayton, where the Republicans elected Edward Phillips by a small majority.

Columbus turned down Mayor Marshall for George Karch, a former mayor of that city. Marshall has rigidly enforced the Sunday closing laws.

Cleveland elected Newton Baker by about 18,000 over F. G. Hogan. The former was a close political friend of the late Tom Johnson.

Henry T. Hunt, D., won in Cincinnati over Dr. Schwab, present mayor, who was charged as being a Cox candidate. President Taft injected himself in the campaign in behalf of the Republican candidate and announced that he would support the Republican ticket as there had been changes since he had denounced Cox in 1908. The voters failed to heed the President and elected Hunt, present prosecuting attorney, who is but 38 years of age. The candidate's father, Samuel Hunt, was years ago a telegraph operator in Xenia.

The most interesting contest has been in Springfield where Police Judge J. J. Miller, D., won over Martin K., candidate. The contest was really a wet and dry affair and regardless of the Billy Sunday meetings and influence Miller was elected by 1,024. That the city is wet is shown by the fact that the only Democrat defeated was McKee for City Solicitor, who was a radical dry man. McGuffee, wet Republican won by over 500.

Lamar Trites, R., who recently hit the saw dust trail in Springfield, was turned down at South Charleston for mayor when the present official, John Allen, was re-elected.

THE FINE, BUT SULTRY.

An old Scotty who was in the habit of calling each evening at the village inn for a "dose of the best" found the landlord one night putting a shine on the taps. After a few remarks about the weather he received his nightly dram. After he had gone the landlord discovered, to his horror, that he had supplied Donald with a half gill out of the bottle of sulphuric acid which he had been using for cleaning the taps. Every moment he "THREW UP" expected to hear of old Donald's death, and his relief was great when the old worthy arrived next evening. "Donald, what did you think of the whisky ye got last night?" "It was a fine dram, a good, warming dram," said Donald, tenderly caressing his struggling beard, "but it had van fault. Every time I coughed it set fire to me whiskers."

A GIFT WITH A THOUGHT IN IT.

What other Christmas present costs so little and means so much, as a subscription to The Youth's Companion—52 weeks for $1.75? It is a gift which benefits not only the one who receives it, but every member of the same household.

With many Christmas presents the sense of novelty wears off by the week's end, but The Youth's Companion is as new and sought after the fifty-second week of the year as the first. It is elastic in its adaptability, too; for it does not matter whether the present is for a boy or a girl, young married people, sedate couples, grandparents—there never was one yet who did not get store by The Youth's Companion. You cannot make a mistake if you give The Companion—and it is only $1.75 a year now. On January 1, 1912, the price will be advanced to $2.00.

The one to whom you give the subscription will receive free The Companion's Calendar for 1912, lithographed in ten colors and gold, and you, too, as giver of the subscription, will receive a copy of the Calendar.
